Reggaeton 12 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Rhythm Blues, LATIN: Latin Rap Show all album songs: Why Not? Songs Details: VivacE... Adjective used in the classical Italian music to describe dynamic, liveness and happiness to express character of music. Such is this musical group composed of three talented and lovely young teens formed in early 2005. The idea was to offer an alternative in the Urban Genre especially in the hot rhythms of reggaeton where the female image was being degraded and sexually exploited by the male audience in the beginning stages of this new music phenomenon. VivacE... has gone through various changes during it's first years while keeping true to the idea of uplifting the women in every aspect especially with music. VivacE... Is integrated by Ary: Explosive and seductive, she brings a special charisma to this dynamic group. Ary has always loved to perform in front of audiences. She has been in the stop light since very young; performing in school talent shows and family reunions while living her passion to entertain. This brings us to Natzz: A hard worker at heart, never satisfied with just ok a perfectionist when it comes to talent and very dedicated to her dreams. Natzz talents are truly displayed by her charisma and friendly demeanor a natural when it comes to winning people over. And last but not least! Leily: An angelical voice that seduces the soul. Leily was born to sing and make no mistake about it that is all you will hear coming out of her (sweet music) mouth. These three beautiful young ladies will make a difference in Urban music especially reggaeton. But make no mistake about it when you hear the flow and harmony of VivacE... you will understand why we say that they're here to make a difference! VivacE... Has had the opportunity to demonstrate their talents through different forums and festivals such as in the Dominican Republic, Saint Croix USVI as well as in local venues, clubs such as Junker the Club, Jaras Cafe, Dakiti (Noches de Galeria), Las Fiestas de Saint Just. They have had their share of benefit functions with the Cancer Association, AMSCA and are always willing to offer their talents when possible and needed. Breaking stereotypes that are established in this genre, VivacE... will dazzle with a touch of aggressive seduction while maintaining their vivid and feminine style! They say that there is no room for women in the reggaeton world, WHY NOT!
