Fierce Butterflies : Moving and Inspiring 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, FOLK: Political Details:

Adrienne Nightingale is a folk singer songwriter based in Brooklyn, NY. She holds tight reign on the raw emotional material in her songwriting. Her songs will startle softly and tell you your own secrets.

Performances are straight from the heart, engaging her audience with tranquility and peace in her voice.

Adrienne tours annually both abroad and in the United States seeking to spread a message of love and light. Her modern folk sound has a wide range of influences with strong hints of both country and blues.

Song topics range from political and environmental to confessional and love. She studied music composition and production at Purchase College under direction of Joe Ferry (grammy-nominated record producer) and classical guitar at Mannes School of Music (The New School). She plays at various bars and coffee shops in NYC and Westchester on a regular basis. She also holds a residency at Cafe Mozart in Mamaroneck, NY where fans can hear her twice a month. She was selected to play in 2005 at the Bushwick Arts Project (BAP) in Brooklyn. Since then, Adrienne has entered the festival scene playing both Howl Fest in NYC and the North Carolina Cape Fear Folk Festival in 2006. She has been heard on the airwaves of public radio stations in Northampton, MA and Wilmington, NC. In Los Angeles on Indie 104 104.7FM, CRNI 107.3 FM, WCLH 90.7 FM, IRADIO LA 88.5 FM and nearly 700 Internet radio stations worldwide. Including Feminine Groove, Music Highway Radio, Netteradio in Dallas Texas and NYC's own Radio Crystal Blue. In 2006 she embarked upon a four month tour through the United States and Canada. She played venues in all the major music markets with a new full length album in hand. She tours each summer, journeying to meet others and engage with nature. Her talent and integrity are quickly garnering her a large fanbase that spans the continental United States. Adrienne gives her heart and soul to music because she believes each person must do what they feel passionate about, and music has always inspired her. She hopes that her music will inspire and impact others positively. Adrienne's intense vocal style and sparse acoustic guitar-based arrangements give her music a delicate tone that is perfectly accompanied by the bare-bones production. Resounding with visceral impact, her sound is best described as Fierce Butterflies!
