Details: Music is defined as the art of sound in time that expresses ideas and emotions in significant forms through the elements of rhythm, melody, harmony, and color...My definition of music: my life. I've always been able to define myself through music. It has the ability to make me feel emotions and relate to situations unlike anything else. It's so powerful that it can determine or change my mood...Music has been a big part of my life since I can remember. Growing up, I listened to mostly country music until the age of 13. At this point, I discovered artists such as Alanis Morissette, Green Day, Oasis etc. At this point, I also decided that I wanted to learn to play the guitar. I purchased a $50 guitar at a pawn shop and began teaching myself to play. Throughout high school, I played a few times for the student body but chose to focus more on sports. My freshman year of college, my focus remained on sports, but I continued to play guitar as much as possible in my spare time. My sophomore year of college I wrote my first song...Writing gave me the ability to express myself, so I began writing poetry/lyrics. After college, my focus shifted from sports, to work. Now that I work a regular 9-5, I try to use all of my "free" time practicing/playing music....I have been performing 2-4 nights per week for the past 2 years at colleges, bars, clubs, festivals, restaurants and other venues throughout Kentucky, Ohio, and Tennessee. After years of writing and months in the studio, I am excited to release my first full-length CD titled, Half Empty. Amanda is a star that most people dont know about yet. She not only has the best female vocal going right now, but she is a songwriter beyond her years. She writes real life lyrics full of hooks and catchy melodies. Shes the hardest working musician I know, period. Ive been playing music longer than shes been alive but not once did I feel she was any less of a musician than me during the production of her CD Half Empty. Amanda is an amazing artist in every sense of the word. -Phil
