Great Bob Scott is respected nationwide as one of the hardest grooving and most animated drummers in Canada. His talents have been showcased in stints with N.O. M. A. and his current involvement with the Excalceolators. He is perhaps best know for his creative and explosive drumming work with the Look People and the Royal Jelly Orchestra, and as the charismatic music lover in the 'Songbird' commercials. Richard Underhill, co-founder of the Shuffle Demons, has over the past twelve years performed at over 100 Jazz, Folk, and Rock festivals in Canada, Europe and Cuba. His preference has always been the blending of different styles of music through improvisation, and he has recently begun exploring digital sound manipulation. His sampling sources include distorted animal sounds, sound effects, movie soundtracks, and groovesource albums.
