Details: Charley Austin's roots families goes as far back and lies beneath deep deep down in the rugged heart of West Texas Dirt. On a cold winter day he was born in Austin, Texas on December 30, 1989. He was raised in a strong Christian household composed of deep moral American values and a love for God, family and country as well as a love for country music. Humility (being humble) is a quality Charley has and still carries with him throughout his life. His family carries deep tradition in the oil field business and trucking industry from both sides of the family from his dad, his brothers down to his grandfathers . His Dad was transfered with work many times, thus, giving Austin the opportunity to attend many schools throughout the DFW metroplex as well as the San Antonio Area and even as far as some parts of Kansas. Charley attended James Madison High School in San Antonio for three years from 9th grade to the 11th grade studying Agriculture in the FFA Theater, and Choir and then began homeschooling for his senior year on behalf of his career and travel in music. He has plans to attend college majoring in agribusiness and political science as well as entertainment law in the future. 18 year old Charley Austin is a singer/songwriter and actor who now resides San Antonio, Texas, where he is enjoys the colorful Tex-Mex Culture and cuisine. He has been singing since he was two yrs. old performing on stage since he was five yrs. old. He has performed at stock shows rodeos, gala's, state county fairs, Colgate country showdowns, festivals, special events, benefits, churches as well as on famous stages such as Tootsies Orchid Lounge, The Nashville Palace, and BB Kings in Nashville, TN. Charley's music is inspirational for all ages. Since Charley is from the "Lone Star State of Texas" he is greatly inspired by legendary artists such as George Strait, Rich

McCready, Clay Walker as well as other artists such as Bobby Flores, from whom Charley takes guitar lessons at the Bulverde Academy of Music. Charley has been influenced by Western Swing and he performs traditional country music with passion. His first single, "That's How I Was Raised has been released to country radio.
