This Solo piano recording is a peaceful, spontaneously inspired dreamscape with subtle background sounds of the sea and the wind and rain. 9 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: Healing, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: David Baroni has been playing the piano almost as long as he has been walking.

Borrowing from such influences as Bill Evans, Dave Grusin, Herbie Hancock, Lyle Mays, McCoy Tyner and George Winston, David has created these piano compositions spontaneously in the studio. David Plays a Yamaha Grand Piano midied to a sythnthesizer in this "one take" musical "Masterpeace". The subtle sounds of the sea, the wind and the waves along with the sometimes haunting, sometimes dancing always inspirational music make this a CD that's always fresh, always appropriate for your own creative processes, or for a quiet time on the highway or having dinner with that special someone. David derives his inspiration from the rolling hills of middle Tennesseess and his Mississippi River roots, along with the jazz influence of his older brother Neil. You will not be disappointed with this CD. It is also featured in Hobby Lobby stores throught America
