Country/Folk songs from a storyteller's point of view. Tales of people loved, people lost and some I just made up. 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Folk, COUNTRY: Americana Details: Raised in the piney woods of Central Louisiana, DC Sills taught herself to play the guitar by watching Austin City Limits. Through time, practice, and hours of recorded ACL shows, she became good enough to play rhythm guitar in a bluegrass band in high school. Influenced by the local bluegrass and gospel music scene and through the tutelage of writers like Nanci Griffith and John Prine (via Austin City Limits), DC's songwriting career was born. Because of these influences, it is often hard to categorize DC's music. Is it country, folk, gospel or bluegrass? That is for the listener to decide. Who does she sound like? She puts it this way, "Mostly, I just sound like me, DC, but there have been comparisons made to: Tracy Chapman, Nanci Griffith, Maura O'Connell and even Cheryl Wheeler...I can only hope they are true!" In the early 90's, DC helped to create the "Trauma Momma's", a local 'party band'. It was this experience that gave her the performing bug and strengthened her songwriting skills. "Singing playing songs you've written, hitting that groove where you just know the audience is as into it as you are...you just can't beat that feeling". Now a few years later, DC is ready to sing out and can often be found frequenting coffee houses taverns from Boston to Phoenix to New Orleans to a town near you! Because after all it's all about the song, and until someone hears it...it is not truly born. DC's first CD, Always a Tourist, was released in September 2005. This six song collection of songs is a tribute to "people met, people lost and people I just dreamed up" and is an eclectic blend of country, folk bluegrass. The CD is available on-line at CDBaby and Outboundmusic.com. Cuts from Always a Tourist are currently receiving airplay on the following stations programs: Medicine Ball Caravan (KRVS 88.7, Lafayette, LA) Mighty Field of Visions Radio (Internet), Outboundmusic (Internet), Radio Sotra (Norway), She Grooves (WCVF- Northport, NY) and Siren's Muse

(WEVL FM 90-Memphis, TN). DC's song "I'll Wait Forever" is included in the Independent film "Big Dreams in Little Hope" momthemovie.com. DC has been chosen by KOA Kampgrounds to be a featured entertainer for the KOA Kampertainment program. During the 2006 Cutting Edge Music Conference held in New Orleans, DC showcased her tunes to much success. The showcase led to upcoming gigs and the inclusion of "Another Reason to Drink" on the ShutEye Records compilation CD "The United States of Americana vol. 5" scheduled for release July '07. DC's first full length CD "Better When I'm Love" is scheduled for release in August 2007. DC is a BMI affiliated artist.
