A mental...virtuality cd .. lyrics true and deep dropped on beats that bring the heat 11 MP3 Songs

GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, SPOKEN WORD: With Music Details: GHETTO GOSPEL ...Her lyrics are Spiritual, Political, and Social Commentaries. She is called Ghetto Gospel, Ghetto, because she expresses truth in candor. You know telling it like it is and all that biz. She was born and raised in Compton California. Ghetto Gospel is forty five years old with a surprising young soul. She belts out lyrical verses to reach that listener who happens to open an ear. Her lyrics have been tagged as "...deep" and "...a fantasy." However listeners receive her, she performs and records to reach and teach. Her gift from God to write factors the lyrics brought through a heartfelt attitude. She is a member of ASCAP, EQCA and HRC. Equality and Civil Rights also burst through in her lyrics. Her poetry piece "Midst of a Rainbow" was featured on EQCA's web site in 2002. Offset by Gospel, because her parents did the groundwork. Kept her always in church, then Christ did more work and gave her a new birth. Born and raised in Church of God in Christ (C.O.G.I.C.) in a little church on Kalmia Street in Watts, California. It left an impact on her life. She has self-produced her first Spoken Lyric CD called "I Don't Understand Christianz." under the production of Hotwordz. Her performance venues consist of The Kotton Club, The Catch One, Los Angeles Trade Technical College, Chelsey's PlayHouse, Christ Chapel of Long Beach, Shades of Afrika, The Village Grind Coffee Lounge Art, Coffee Haven, Viento y Agua in Long Beach, The Gay Lesbian Center Long Beach, and Fendi's Caf. The spoken lyric CD, Ghetto Gospel "i don't understand christianz" is set to tracks from Execlife Studios in Bellflower, California. Ghetto Gospel had some words to express and Execlife another Independent Artist assisted to make the CD jump and release music for your mind. It helps to meditate on the words as you groove to the heat of the beats.
