Details: Award winning guitarist Jack Grassel enjoyed years of personal tutelage by his mentors, Tal Farlow and George Van Eps, who helped father his unique style. In the March 2000 issue of "Guitar One" magazine, fans voted him as one of the "10 Best Guitarists (you probably don't know) in America." This winner of six Wisconsin Area Music Industry awards as Jazz Artist of the Year maintains a busy schedule of performances. In 1996, Jack was acknowledged for excellence as a distinguished educator in "Who's Who of America's Teachers." Mr. Grassel's popular "Big Ax" book series is the groundbreaking system for playing bass lines, melody and chords simultaneously. Mr. Grassel's columns have enlightened readers of "Guitar Player" and "Just Jazz Guitar" magazines. Learn more about Jack and his work at jackgrassel.com
