Details: LadyParasyte, along with production from fellow Chicago musician Jim Vanaria (birdFEEDER) of the band Essenza, has established a sound incorporating elements of industrial,electro and metal music creating a fusion of sound that ranges from strikingly aggressive to chaotically catchy. Already gaining an impressive online following,LP is making the Chicago music scene take notice with a unique voice: repentant and apologetic one moment, then relentless and unforgiving the next. LP was a featured guest on the Chicago industrial/electronic outfit Die Warzaus latest album, Supergangbang. .She has also been credited for getting the metal band Scum of the Earth signed with Eclipse records. Her single Salvage is featured on the promotional compilation release for Ominous Passions Clothing as well as the Creative Violence Records compilation release "More Than One Way to Skin a Corpse". She also collaborated with Alan Oldham on his release The Art of Transformation 2 contributing lyrics and vocals. In 2008 guitarist InkyDust,vocalist Miss Angela and DJ T-1000 on turntables joined the band's live line up.Currently,the band just finished up their first cd release,The Sirens EP and are currently playing live throughout the Chicago area.
