Upbeat colorful blues with casual, fun-loving original vocals, a "hoot." 13 MP3 Songs BLUES: Chicago Style, FOLK: Folk Blues Details: _____

Authentic BLUES FOR JEWS Track 1: Ho Jo. A new version of a rowdy, well known blues standard. Our tribute to the "Mostly Gone-But Not Forgotten" restaurant chain. Track 2: The Bubbie Bus. A salute to "bubbies" or grandmothers. Willing dispensers of free hugs and advice. Track 3: Eat Alone. Here are a few such bits of advice, food style. Track 4: NY Cowboy Walking Bass Version A . Alex Baum "takes off" on bass. Track 5: Petaluma, CA A charming town, lovely homes and Jewish chicken ranches. Track 6: Little Boy Blues. Refers to the ritual of circumcision. Track 7: Cold Air Blues. A favorite "gripe." TIP: Grab a couple of napkins before you head in. Track 8: Nanishevitz Blues. Our own "classic" promotes the taste and tipsiness associated with Passover seders. Track 9: No Money Blues. I've met lots of kids with entrepreneurial spirit. Track 10: NY, NY Parody. Track 11: NY Cowboy Walking Bass Version B. Which rendition do you prefer? Track 12: Volvo. The heavy frames are supposed to help with crash survival. Therefore, Mom needs one. Track 13: "It's Just As Easy. My Mom's advice. Of course, folks tell me they heard this in their own families. Marry a rich one." . .
