If the above lyric hits home for you, then "I SHOULD HAVE BEEN BORN A GIRL" is the CD you've been waiting for all of your life. Finally, someone has expressed in song everything that a MTF crossdresser or a transgendered woman feels inside. Written by Carolyn Scarpelli, herself a transgendered woman, and produced by FemSide Music, this is truly a CD CD!! In this musical score, you will hear things perhaps never before expressed in song. The score begins with a fully orchestrated overture, and the first song, "I'M GONNA BE A LADY TONIGHT" is the perfect song to sing when you are dressing, and know you will be going out "en femme" for the evening. It continues with "I'M A WOMAN ON THE INSIDE" (ON THE OUTSIDE I'M A MAN). A beautiful ballad about the conflict we all feel. A "Countessa's Girl" is a woman of superior elegance, charm, grace, and sophistication. Sounds just like you, doesn't it? "WHEN I LOOK IN THE MIRROR" (THERE'S A WOMAN LOOKING BACK AT ME) How many years have you looked in the mirror only to see a man looking back, when you feel so much like a woman? Finally, the person you see in the mirror is the same person you are inside. "WHY WOULD ANYBODY WANT TO BE A MAN?" reaffirms the performer's admiration for the feminine sex, and her love of being transgendered. "BUY ME A DRESS, MAMA" is a story song about a little boy who asks his mother to buy him a dress for his birthday. A lovely folk ballad, it will surely touch your heart. "SHOPPING FOR THE WOMAN IN ME"- Hey... who doesn't love to shop!??? The next song is a fun tune encouraging you to go out and do "GIRL

THINGS." "Go on.. have fun.. go and get your hair done. Go do "girl things" like real girls do." And last but not least, the title song, "I SHOULD HAVE BEEN BORN A GIRL." Of all the songs on the CD, this song most adequately expresses the songwriter's feelings about her transgenderd life. A humorous song written in the style of classic showtunes, this is the perfect song to perform on karaoke night at your favorite TG nightclub. Happy Dressing, Now go do "Girl Things"
