Trop Rock- a fusion of rock, blues, jazz and country with lyrical subjects leaning towards summertime and tropical themes. 7 MP3 Songs WORLD: Island, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: The Band Pirate Dreams was an experiment put into place 4 years ago by two music store schmoes who wanted to hang out at beach bars in Western New York all summer and get paid to do it. We started out as an acoustic trio playing Jimmy Buffet covers and other stuff that made girls in string bikinis jiggle. After the first summer it quickly escalated into a tropical fixation and a full band for the second and subsequent seasons. We got tired of only playing cover material and starting writing for ourselves in the Winter 2005-2006. What became of those first sessions is what we have here Listen to the samples and if you like what you hear, buy it The Disc Memento is our first collection of songs (were always writing more) and although we encourage you to find your own inspiration in each of them, this is kind of what we had in mind when we wrote them. Jimmy Tropical Breeze Are we guided by destiny or free will? Ive always thought a little bit of both. Go where you will, explore what you can, experience everything but your Tropical Breeze will always eventually lead you back to where you call home. Dont be afraid to follow it. Memento What triggers memories? A keychain in your pocket? A locket around your neck? The faint hint of a certain perfume? Some of the fondest memories I have are triggered by songs and I carry those around in my head. Palm Tree in Buffalo This one goes out to the crazy folks up in our home stomping grounds who keep the summer spirit going despite the sometimes extreme changes of weather we experience here in Western New York. As long as the palm tree grows the heat will come from someplace inside and Ill always be warm. David Erie Serenade Just about every time Ive picked up my acoustic over the past 20+ years, this is the song that came out. It just reminds me of kickin back, cruising around the parks and beaches in my home of Western New York. The great summer weather, lake breezes, beach bars and having a cold one. Marty The Fisherman - Story songs are alot like short stories, there's no room for the extraneous. This one is a nod to some of the greats: Steve Goodman, Gordon Lightfoot and certainly Jimmy Buffett Cool Clean Water - Water is a great metaphor, life can be a smooth sail or a perfect storm, but it's usually somewhere in the middle. Still it's best to know where the lifeboats are. Saturday Night in New Orleans - This one came to me in a dream after listening to a great band called The Subdues prior to bed. Long live New Orleans! PD TropiCast Radio Not only do we want you to discover us, we'd love it if you get into the Trop Rock genre altogether. That's why we've created PD TropiCast. PD TropiCast is a 24 hour online broadcast hosted by live365.com. It features music not only from us but also from other independant Trop Rock artists as well as summertime and tropical sounding tunes from mainstream artists. It's free to listen and should work with a standard 56k connection as well as broadband. Check it out at live365.com/stations/jimmypirate. Pirate Dreams "Adopts" SPCA of Erie County as "Pet" Charity Angola, NY Pirate Dreams, an area music group known for its tropical songs, summertime themes and Jimmy Buffett tribute, has made a commitment to support the SPCA of Erie County by raising funds for the organization through the bands shows and website. Buffett fans are known as Parrot Heads , says Jim Jowsey, founder of the group, and Parrot Heads are known for their Party with a Purpose ethic. Yes, there are margaritas, rum drinks, palm trees, grass skirts and a general sense of relaxed mayhem, but if you can take all that energy and apply it towards something positive, then youre ahead of the game. Pirate Dreams has been around for over 4 years, has developed a solid following and decided it was time to put that following to good use. Being an owner of 4 dogs, two of them adopted from the SPCA, the choice of what charity the band wanted to support was obvious. The SPCA has always been near and dear to my heart. says Jowsey and I feel that animals are an important part in so many aspects of our lives. Pirate Dreams has pledged a donation of $2 for every copy of their CD Memento sold, be it at shows, from their website or other online vendors such as CDBabyand Itunes. The band will also give fans the opportunity to participate in fund raising activities such as 50/50 and prize raffles at live shows. The bands website, piratedreams.com will keep a running tally of funds raised and donated and give fans the chance to see exactly how much they are helping. Jowsey says I think its important to let people know exactly where their contributions are going, well keep track of peoples contributions for all to see on the website, its not how much is contributed but how often and I definitely think over the course of time we can raise some serious money. Visit piratedreamsonline.com for more information on live shows where fundraising will be taking place as well as info on where you can help out by picking up a copy of the bands disc Memento or just to see how theyre doing.
