Acoustic rock with a slight 70's influence 12 MP3 Songs POP: 70's Pop, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Ray Winch is one of the new breed of singer songwriters drawing influences from '70's Pop, New Country, and Rock. Much of his first album "Visions Reflections" is reminiscent of the "70's Folk-Rock sound (Eagles, Jackson Browne, Dan Fogelberg, America, Poco, etc). There is an emphasis on meaningful lyrics and strong melodies. Ray has been booked as the opening act for The Marshall Tucker Band, Jackson Browne, Bonnie Raitt, Bruce Hornsby, and The Charlie Daniels Band. "Visions Reflections" is a Folk-Rock masterpeice and a must have for any fan of this great style of music. ---Gunther G. - TheGlobalMuse.com "Visions Reflections" is yet another example of a capable singer - songwriter out there in the world giving us his slant on some well - discussed themes. ---Music Head Magazine "Visions Reflections" is as good a collection of original songs as has been released in northwest New Jersey in recent years. ---Wayne Thorpe - The Star Journal For more information please visit raywinch.com
