Over the last 3 years, Stash has regularly filled regional venues with slick grooves and dope rhymes with their outlaw reggae vibes. Hard work and the constant drive to keep the crowd moving fuels Stash, keeping the music focused and live. Stash's released their first CD, "Gettin' Trim" on February 24, 2006 to a crowd of over 500 in Detroit, and they plan on keeping their Summer schedule filled, for example, having recently opened for Long Beach Short Bus (ex-Sublime) in Cleveland, OH, and ripping it up at Ann Arbor, Michigan's famous Hash Bash on April 1st. The experienced members of Stash have worked and shared stages with many varied acts, some of which are Michael Winslow, (Police Academy Spaceballs), Hush, Black Magic Crossing, Sponge, Thornetta Davis, Atomic Fireballs, Kid Rock, Uncle Kracker, the Howling Diablos, The Articles, Groove Collective, members of George Clintons P-Funk Allstars and many more.
