Smooth female vocals, unique guitar stylings, bouncing bass and powerful drumming combine to form our own brand of rockin' Psychedelic Americana flavored with bluegrass, space jams, and more... 11 MP3 Songs ROCK: Psychedelic, FOLK: Power-folk Details: Deb Hilton (acoustic guitar/vocals) and Wild Billy Kneebone (guitars) began their musical friendship as jammin buddies out on the back porch of Debs old shanty in Flagstaff. As jams turned into songs, they moved from the porch to the stages of Arizona, Colorado, and New Mexico. After releasing their debut album in 2002, original songs kept on comin' so Hilton and Kneebone rounded up the best musicians in Northern Arizona and produced a second CD, SONG IN MY HAND. Recorded in the old haunted school house in the 'ghost town' of Jerome, AZ, this album features Freda Bern on bass, Aaron Tyler on mandolin, Steve Botterweg and Andrew Lauher on drums, Su Bog on keyboard, and Starcomet Johnson on percussion. "SONG IN MY HAND definately reflects our musical growth," says Kneebone, "and our songwriting is stronger." Kneebone has recorded and produced CDs with guests: Each Others' Legend, Pete Sears (Hot Tuna), Steve Kimock, R. Carlos Nakai, Peter Rowan, Hans Olson, Walt Richardson, Joe Myers, and more... Deb has shared the bill with Michelle Branch, Gin Blossoms, and Cracker... "Some of Flagstaff's favorite musicians...always great lead guitar" FLAG LIVE! "Melodic swingy jamgrass!" THE NOISE "Very cool...Cowboy Junkie-ish but I'm not bummed at all." SONGRAMP.COM
