Northern Soul Legend 10 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Soul Details: This CD is dedicated to the record collectors world wide for there burning dedication and for bringing forth one of the all time great voices of soul music history, Tony Drake. His vocals illustrated by the deep searing heart felt ballad "Let's Play House" which he cut for Musicor in 1969. Drake's solitary 1970 Brunswick single "Suddenly" is now a much prized and high price dance floor smash of the modern soul circuit. His remake of the Tommy Hunt Classic "Human" which he cut for Rissa Chrissa record in 1983 is second to none. Under his given name Samuel Garner he is also the songwriter of The Chi-Lites classic "Living in the Footsteps of Another Man" Tony has recently found belated acceptance and collectability world wide making possible this CD of ten unreleased tracks recorded from 1973-1983 featuring his self composed classic "Living in the Footsteps of Another Man".
