A piano rock band that prides itself on it's creative mixture of Melodies, Stories and Musicianship 6 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, ROCK: Acoustic Details: In an age of contrived bands and manufactured glory, have you been wondering where the true music resides? Real songs consisting of Melody, Story and Musicianship? TRINITY ROAD is a band born of a shared, yet uncompromising musical vision. A group that disposes of convention and pretense, opting instead to nurture the integrity and character of real music. A band founded on songwriting, rather than image ... A confluence of captivating melodies and heartfelt lyrics, breathing life back into a cookie-cutter music industry. Steven St. James, Jeremy Guther and Louis Joel James collectively possess a wealth of experience in various musical and entertainment disciplines from the studio to the stage and from radio to film and television. They fill venues across Southern Ontario with their piano and guitar based, melody-laden musical textures. Industry representative and radio personalities routinely court TRINITY ROAD for appearances, interviews and of course their legendary live performances. TRINITY ROAD has become an independent music phenomenon. Their singles have become some of the most requested on Internet radio, and the #1 most requested on stations such as powerhouserock.net. TRINITY ROADs live shows have been part of festivals and mega-bills that have featured such giants as Doc Walker and Vince Neil. And recently, TRINITY ROAD performed a marathon live 3 hour performance and interview on cygnusradio.com, that was so well received and flooded with fan questions and requests, that the show went into almost an hour of overtime. This is the overwhelming, yet increasingly more customary response that TRINITY ROAD receives from their growing legions of fans. If you believe that it's time that music meant something once again; that passion, heart and substance are the essential and indispensable elements forgotten by the juggernaut of the modern music industry, then it's about time that you got very familiar with TRINITY
