Details: Carlos Morgan aka Carll Parkes, a talented singer, songwriter, producer is poised to break on a global level. Feelin' Alright, his debut album, showcased the diversity of Morgans sultry singing style with seductive ballads like Let Me Love Again and Forever For You to the upbeat R&B tracks Give It To You and Baby CMon. Originally recorded as an independent release for DTone Records, it quickly became one of Canada's hottest selling indie albums of 1996/97, topping the charts at #3 on The Record's Independent charts after only two weeks of release. Whatcha Got, written and produced by Morgan went Top 40 in Canada, its inclusion on the Top 50 Canadian CHR songs for 2000 and MuchMusic Video Award nomination, paved the way for his reintroduction as a self produced artist. Inspired by legends such as Donny Hathaway, Stevie Wonder, Luther Vandross, J. Moss, Kim Burrell, Jazmine Sullivan, Barry White and Nat King Cole, Morgan's evolution brings him to the release of his sophomore album Where Ive Been, Where Im Going . Having the creative control he desired, Morgans vision is to fuse the diversity of music genres that inspire him melding them with his R&B signature so there will be no mistake interpreting which genre Morgan calls home. Using his sizable vocal gifts, arrangements and ability to deliver multi-layered harmonies while utilizing his song writing and production skills, Morgan succeeds at making Where Ive Been, Where Im Going an album that will make an international impact.
