Spanning every genre from bluegrass to funk to rock'n'roll to surf to meditative, PB&JAM rocks the whole family. Every song has accompanying moves and grooves...push the furniture to the walls, turn up the volume, and get up outta your seat. 18 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music Details: 'Charity and the JAMband: Peanut Butter and JAM' is the mind-blowing follow-up to the first JAM CD, Music for Movement with Children. Spanning every genre from bluegrass to funk to rock 'n' roll to surf to meditative, PB&JAM hits a nerve with kids and parents alike. The reviews are pouring in: kids love everything about the CD (to the point of obsession), and parents admittedly play it even when the kids aren't home or in the car. Even teenagers approve. Charity Kahn sings and plays the blues away with her versatile voice, expansive harmonies, clever piano licks, and fabulous flute frills. The funky/folky JAMband joins in with Charlie Crocker (Daddy Charlie) on bass, Amos Glick (Uncle Mo) on guitar, and Hud Bixler (Daddy Hud) on drums to make this CD truly rock. Charity's songs are inspired by the real thing...her two kids and the school kids to whom she brings the JAM Music and Movement Experience. The music and lyrics are edgy, clever, real, fantastical and fun...no evidence of talking down to kids here. And the bonus: every song has accompanying moves and grooves...get up outta your seat! Your family needs this CD...push the furniture to the walls, clear the floors, turn up the volume, and boogie down together! You will feel the love, guaranteed. Appropriate ages: 0 - infinity.
