Music from a Guam born musician with Guamanian and Tahitian influences and some very precious remakes of the hits that islanders remember. 9 MP3 Songs WORLD: Island, BLUES: Guitar Blues

Details: As a lead guitarist, vocalist and songwriter, I have performed at Disneyland's Tomorrowland in Anaheim, in many showrooms and venues throughout Southern California, recently in Tahiti, and on Oahu, Kauai, Maui, Reno, Laughlin, Denver, Las Vegas, Tokyo Hiroshima, Japan, the Northwestern U.S. and Canada with several of my show groups. I've performed in concerts as lead guitarist for Stevie Wonder, and with my previous groups I have opened concerts for the Doobie Brothers, America, Ronnie Laws, Norman Brown, and Spyro Gyra. I am a member of ASCAP and recently released my new CD titled "Tahitian Dreams", a cassette double titled "Mama Mia She's Crazy" and "The Hardest Part". In addition, I have multiple credits on many other recordings with several artists. My newest CD, "Chamorro Dreams" is slated for release in the Fall of 2006. As lead guitarist vocalist, I was the bandleader for DaJamBand, PWP, The Pepper Williams Project, and a member of Paul Flynn Company, Johnny Quest, bandleader for The Class Act, player in Tunesmith as well as with San Diego's old school funk group, Makai, led by my good friend Benmar Felizardo. With my group, Chamorro Dreams, we performed at the Sons Daughters of Guam Club in San Diego, California, with fellow islander artists Jesse C. Rivera, Raymond Baza, Ben Benavente and Tony Cruz. More can be seen on my website at johnrborja.com I also performed in Papeete, Tahiti at the International BeachComber. I wrote the song "The Master of Taapuna" for Wilfried Villet, a famous Tahitian surfer and Taapuna Master champion who totally shreds Taapuna, Teahupo'o and Vairao. I also performed at the Jimmy Dee 50th Guam Reunion concert at the Gold Coast Hotel Casino in Las Vegas, Nevada in a lineup that included Jimmy Dee, Johnny Sablan, Joe McCarrel, Johnny Island, and the Radiants. Included in my newest CD titled CHAMORRO DREAMS is the Tahitian favorite "Te Vahine Tahiti" and several new songs in English, Chamorro, Tahitian and French. Some of these may now be heard on my website.
