World music, contemporary, contemplative, instrumental, afro jazz funky fusion. 9 MP3 Songs in this album (41:04) ! Related styles: WORLD: African- South, JAZZ: Jazz Fusion Details: I was born in England and my first memory is flying to South Africa. Over the years I have played guitar and been the singer in several different garage bands. Including the psychedelic rock band Exiled on Earth. In England i played with The Velvet Soft Experience performing around London and the Bucks area but grew bored with rock and wanted to play more tribal/world style instrumental music with a twist of funk so I returned to Africa and dicided to study music to better understand it and to help my writing. In ZA I studied classical guitar with Frits Buss and jazz guitar with Johnnie Fourie.. Whilst studying music sound engineering at Allenby music college.. At the dawn of the new millennium I taught Guitar/bass played jazz guitar in the Nick Collis Trio at local clubs and restaurants.. In 2003 I moved to Cape Town for two years and were I studied drums with Kat at the jazzworkshop and djembe at the drumcafe before moving to England were I live at present. The album is a collection of instrumentals that have been put on the back burner over the years I have been studying and teaching that I decided to put together and release myself because I knew no one else would and what you hear are the results though I must confess I have at least 3 more albums worth of material still in my head so if this album actually sells it will definitely inspire me to do another album as I had a lot of fun recording these 9 songs and would relish the oppotunity to drecord a second album. regards Marcus George
