Maybe you haven't found that answer anywhere! Believe me it is here!! Michele Jackson growing up as a pastor's daughter and a musician for her father's church and many other churches has learned how to depend on Jesus to select the songs that would minister to the people's needs. That dependency is so evident in the songs on their Cd - SO THEY'LL KNOW. It definitely ministers to the needs of people. Having a supportive spouse and family makes the road a lot easier. It is her husband that God used to suggest that Michele start a choir named Infinite Praise. And he made whatever sacrifices needed to work along side his wife and provide the instruments she needed to fulfill the work of the Lord. He and Michele, along with their four children have definitely demonstrated that they love and trust God. And also strongly feel that "if God said it, then that settles it"! The love Michele Jackson has for God exceeds any other love she has. Michele Jackson knows that the perfect will of God is the only place for her to be. Michele Jackson was born for a special destiny, broken for a special ministry, unshakened for a special level of faith, trained for a special war, loved by God for a special relationship, suffered for a special anointing, abandoned for a special closeness with God, forgiven for a special devotion, rejected by others for a special purpose, separated for a special mission, Gifted with songs through different experiences for a special ministry, yet fully aware that "it is not I but the Christ who lives in me!! Michele Jackson along with Infinite Praise have no desire just to perform when they sing. It is totally about music ministry. God has given Michele Jackson powerful songs with powerful messages and an excellent choir and band to bring her vision to reality. The songs have a variety of styles. This allows each individual person the opportunity to listen and enjoy a style that is familiar yet a little bit new. With a mix of contemporary and traditional gospel flava, I know many people will sing these songs for a long, long time!! The members of Infinite Praise can't be compared to any other group. They are a very special group of people who's chosen to deliver this message to the world! The sound that is released through Infinite Praise is a sound from Heaven, it's like God is saying, I need someone to sing my praise and minister to the lost and hurting. Hey, I think I'll shower down my spirit on them. Don't be surprised if you find yourself saying, Do I hear angels in the background? 1. BAA-DAA-DAA - What's that about? It's a word God gave Michele Jackson to express a joyful noise rendered to God, when regular words don't express the joy we feel inside. The lyrics remind us that we will have temptations and we must make a choice to do what is right or wrong. It is totally about God receiving all glory, honor, reverence, worship and praise for who he is, for every single thing that mankind receives and becomes, which he is so worthy of! When you listen to this song it causes you to humble yourself and remember all that happens in life, even the things we take for granted, God, our Creator, King, Saviour, Deliverer, Healer, Provider, Lover, he is our Source not we ourselves.
