A powerful voice with a dynamic performance from this young up-and-coming female vocalist that will appeal to all generations. 1 MP3 Songs POP: Pop Details: Tamara has loved singing since she was 7 years old which is mostly due to the showbiz background she came from. Her Father was Brian Rossi, a famous entertainer from Belfast and her Mother Pat Rossi who was his manager for many years. Tamara's Father is best remembered for being the lead singer in his group called The Wheels and being band leader and showman at the Plaza Ballroom, Belfast. He then gave Van Morrison his first break and subsequently Van Morrison wrote "Gloria" for The Wheels. Van Morrison always refers to Brian Rossi in all interviews that he takes part in. Brian Rossi also had a huge English following. His most popular venue was the famous Queens Dolphin Bar, Cleveleys, Lancashire where he appeared for 7 years, which has now been demolished. Sadly Tamara's Father died in 1984 at the age of 49. Tamara completed a law degree and is now pursuing her career in the law however recently she decided to place her music on a public internet website which has attracted a lot of attention in a short space of time. Subsequently the song 'Wherever You Are Now' was wrote for Tamara by Jamie Glaser who resides in the USA. 'Wherever You Are Now' is dedicated to Tamara's Father who she sadly lost when she was only 2 years of age and it means the world to her to be able to release this song for the public to hear in memory of her late Father.
