Details: Jorge Flores (PORTAL) was born in Managua, Nicaragua. That same year Mahmoud Lutfi (VERSTYLE) was born in Khartoum, Sudan. Almost 20 years later these two would meet in The United States of America and join forces to spread goodwill through the art of hip-hop. Together they combine their artistic abilities to create trilingual (English, Spanish and Arabic!) story line sequences filled with poetic realism, humor, and life's experiences. Karim aka Freetown was born in Sierra Leone, Africa and is of course the mastermind behind the banging beats that are scratched to by DJ Sharlo, a native to the states. Together they are Iowa City's finest. Together they are Unyted Naytionz.
