He was born in Camden and moved to Pomona, CA when he was five years old. He attended Public School in Pomona and College in Santa Ana, CA where he met his wife, Dyandra. They reside in Orange County. Several years ago White Feather purchased a Native American Flute made by an local Native Artesian and to his surprise, he found he could play it without the benefit of lessons. He knew about 'channeling' but found it hard to believe that it was happening to him. He feels that he is channeling Shamanic Flute Players from long ago. He plays for Love, Joy and Healing. He says, I close my eyes and hear a voice in my head that says, Just blow, White Feather. And so I blow and let the Old Ones do the rest! White Feather and Otik met more than 15 years ago when he was playing guitar in a local band. They became good friends and, being of the same mindset, it just seemed natural to do this project together. Otik is of Cherokee and Celtic decent. He was born in the Big D, Dallas, Texas where he grew up and attended Public School. His parents moved the family to Southern California when he was a teenager. He began playing guitar in 1989 and has been a member of two local bands. He has received degrees from ATI Graphic Artist School, California School of Culinary Arts/Le Cordon Bleu, and he is a licensed Building Inspector. But his two loves are music and cooking. After graduating from Le Cordon Bleu he went to Taos, New Mexico a beautiful and magickal place that helped his spiritual development. He was offered the position of Sous Chef at Casa de las Chimeneas Bed and Breakfast. Upon returning to California he was hired by Mickey Mouse to cook in the kitchens of Disney's Grand Californian Hotel. After all the schooling and all the work he is happy to be in music once again. He has used his knowledge and expertise to enhance each of White Feather's songs. All flute arrangements are 'channeled'. All accompaniments are composed, arranged and performed by Michael Hurst, aka Otik. People who are interested in Douglas Spotted Eagle R. Carlos Nakai Zingaia should consider this download.
