Home | Resell Rights Is Internet Marketing Written In Greek... Or Are You Just Totally Confused And Clueless? Ex-Internet Newbie Reveals The Internet Marketing Roadmap To Riches And Exposes The Truth About Making Money Online... That Most Gurus Arent Telling You About! If You Are New To Making Money Online And Frustrated Of Being Overloaded With All The Crappy Free Information You Get On The Internet, Then I Invite You To Read Every Line Of This Letter. From: Edmund Loh & [Insert Your Name Here] Today's Date: Wednesday, November 11, 2009 Dear Work-From-Home Entrepreneur, Just a few short years ago, I was standing at the same fork road where you are at right now. It was a major decision for me to make: it was either being enslaved all my life by my boss who had the power to decide how much money I get to keep every end of the month or fire him and be my own boss. Of course, the second option sounded more appealing to me, but that was just it: it only sounded that way. The problem with becoming my own so-called boss was that I would lose the security of a stable paycheck and, goodness forbid, the benefits. The same holds true for beginning entrepreneurs of any kind; work-at-home entrepreneurs aren't spared either. In short, there are NO guarantees. I could succeed big

time. Or flop big time and never recover. And it is said that 9 out of 10 businesses fail before they reach their five year anniversary. Wow, aren't the odds against people like you and me! Like you, I have read a lot of free information on the Internet to learn more on how to start my Internet Business from home. So I've been reading articles, subscribed to e-zines, downloaded free E-Books, you name it. I've been there too. Some were good, most of them so-so. None of them helped me much at all. Hello, Where Does X Mark the Spot? If this is something that you can relate to at all, I was also fed up of reading stuff that promised me instant riches. Since I'm not a technically savvy person by nature, the terminology used in most E-Books, articles and even home study courses are so complicated they might as well be written in Sanskrit. And if there are so much content out there that promises techniques on how to make money, why are so many people still broke and struggling? Well it's not your fault. Over time, I discovered a surprising truth about making money online. It's shocking and bordering horrific when you observe the formal statistics. You see, I realized that there actually is a missing link that prevents most Internet newbies from achieving breakthroughs in their income and business growth. In fact, this same missing link is responsible for keeping many of us in our mediocrity cage. To begin with, you must possess the required skills and techniques to do business online. How is that horrific and surprising? Good question. Well, how many times have you read sales letters that promise you overnight wealth whether you know anything or nothing at all? Eventually, I had come to terms on one simplified truth in Internet Marketing: You Have To Be The Right Person In The Right Place At The Right Time. We are now living the most exciting era where it is more possible than ever to amass fortune in hordes and do it without all the expensive equipment... and even leaving home. I suspect that this evolution will continue to evolve for a long time to come. However, you must be the right person to act onto this golden opportunity. If you don't exhibit the right habit and mindset, you will be robbed of these opportunities no matter how many downloads you have in your hard drive today. I know this to be the case because I didn't start making a dime until I discovered and exhibited the right values and mindset. These are the most often neglected aspects of Internet Marketing that majority of the wanna-bes omit - and it's now costing them everything. On the other hand, if you exhibit all of the core knowledge and values you need to succeed, you can still produce wealth even if you are depleted of resources. When you have the skill to manifest wealth at will, isn't that a priceless skill to kill for? Announcing The Internet Marketing Roadmap For Newbies... Here's What You Will Learn In This 28 Page E-Book: How to Overcome Information Overload - one of my

While there is absolutely nothing being a newbie in anything, you have to hand it that this is the most frustrating process. And in an environment driven by desperation for money and pressure to strive for wealth, I was given a lot of contradicting advice. So much so I couldnt tell the good from the bad. I only knew I wanted to make money online. I didnt know exactly how. And I certainly didnt know where to begin with, even though I had some E-Books on different techniques. After a series of costly trial and error (mostly error), I broke out of my mediocrity shell. When I looked back, I was like, Whoa - I had just got myself out of a maze! This is the same maze many people are stuck in now - trying to figure out what to do next, which money making approach they should take, and how they can finally play the Internet Marketing game as an insider - and no longer as a frustrated outsider. And treating it as a fun game and not do it out of survival. So How Much Does It Cost? Perhaps the right question to ask is, How much is this really worth to you, really? I hope that you dont start comparing it with another how to get rich E-Book because this isnt about the latest make money online techniques. Its about how to break yourself out of the shell of mediocrity hence the name Internet Marketing Roadmap for Newbies.
