Originally from Little Rock, Arkansas, Amy now resides in the Orlando area where she can be found performing regularly when not on the road. Having graduated from the University of Texas at Austin with a degree in Vocal Performance, Amys vocal training focused on opera and musical theater. Her true jazz training came not from school, but from growing up with a father whos musical talents were rooted in jazz., and then going on to do it herself on the road all over the world. From St. Petersburg, Russia, to a command performance for President Clinton, Amys stylings have continued to impress both jazz aficionados and novices alike. Amy gives jazz a glamorous pop appeal with her latest album finding her in her element; swinging through the jazz and Broadway hits with an all-star band. Her selection of songs and arrangements are true time-tested music of love and sophistication, WFIT 89.5FM radio, Melbourne, Florida. Amy has performed as a guest artist with the Christian Tamburr quartet as well as leading her own band. Over the past seven years Amy has performed in venues worldwide including during the Salzburg Festival in Salzburg Austria; Piazzo San Marco in Venice, Italy, the Staat Hotel in Karlskrona, Sweden; and has appeared repeatedly as a featured artist for Radisson Seven Seas Cruises on the M/S Navigator, the M/S Diamond, the M/S Mariner and the M/S Voyager. Ms. Bakers recording career includes a wide variety of projects, thanks to her versatility. Among these recordings are, three solo albums (the latest being In and Out of Love, a jazz project with the Christian Tamburr Trio), the leading role in a recording of Gilbert and Sullivans The Mikado, and she appears as Pocahontas on five albums for Disney Records. She has also worked as a studio singer for several recording studios throughout the country and even for a studio in Sweden. Her rendition of Swedish National Anthem is still being used to open some of the countrys sporting events. Amy has her father to thank for her career in music, specifically in jazz. Charles Baker was a saxophonist in dance band in the 1940s, although his career was cut short as his father forbid him to accept a position with Jack Everetts Dance Orchestra - he didnt approve of the wild world of jazz. Amys father was just the opposite, constantly encouraging her in her musical endeavors from the day he had a piano delivered when she was five. Many a happy memory are held in the days they spent sitting at the piano, Amy playing and singing with her dad on sax as they played through his entire library of sheet music from the 40s - a collection she treasures to this day. Amys latest recording, In and Out of Love, is already garnering attention and receiving radio play. This is definitely a CD you will want to add to your collection - I am certainly enjoying it, Eric Young, WLRQ 99.3 FM Melbourne, FL. The CD has already earned her an opening act performance for renowned jazz guitarist, Earl Klugh. Her work as a jazz and cabaret artist has earned a following that covers the globe, and her passion for her music continues to drive her to new musical heights.
