A singer/songwriter works with some of Nashville's best for a CD project with a variety of country and pop influences. 13 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Traditional Country, COUNTRY: Contemporary Country Details: On her new CD, "A Songwriter's Collage," CJ Borden brings together over a dozen years of songwriting with a broad spectrum of country and pop styles. A songwriter-driven project, CJ brings together the talents of Nashville's best players along with many friends for this eclectic mix of country and pop songs. For male-driven tracks, she shares vocal duties with such up-and-coming stars as Matt Dame and Jeremy Ross. The project also hosts legendary drummer Eddie Bayers and Toto keyboardist Buddy Hyatt. In Nashville, CJ collaborated with Jim Williams, who was once named Nashville Songwriter Association's Best Up Coming songwriter. She has performed at the Tennessee State Fair and the world-famous Bluebird Cafe. After a move to Gulf Shores, Alabama, CJ was one of the co-founders of an indie label and publishing company. She excelled as a backup vocalist/arranger and played keyboards on numerous projects. She was also co-writer and arranger for a New Age project. CJ continues to write and perform, with a number of Top 10 Country songs on Broadjam. She's also a member of Killian's Angels, an all-female Celtic rock group based in Las Vegas.
