Folk, Modern Folk, Folk/Rock - A true voice for the modern, wandering wondering soul 10 MP3 Songs

FOLK: Modern Folk, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: For over six years now, David Boone has been entertaining the cafes, coffeehouses bars of the hip college town of Missoula, Montana, and the surrounding Northwest region. With a solid foot in the folk tradition of storytelling, Boone effortlessly straddles the fence between pop, rock blues without ever compromising originality or authenticity. His melodic phrasing- delivered with an easy voice- begs listeners to follow along on a journey of personal highs lows. Seeing Boone live is like stepping right into his personal diary where he openly explores doubts, beliefs, spirituality romance with the weight that each deserves. One of the highlights of Boone's song writing is how deftly he mimics the emotion of the lyrics with his vocals. Within one song, he easily goes from the soft, pure smoothness of a ballad to the sometimes strained wailing of heightened angst. One listen to Boone you know he's the real deal, stemming from the lineage of Woody Guthrie, Bob Dylan &, more recently, Jack Johnson Counting Crows. Touring nationally with Seattle percussionist James Wasem, the duo joins to create a sound of intricate, yet balanced, rhythm and melody
