For more than twenty-five years David has been associated with music and ministry in the Catholic communities throughout the United States and Canada. David provides concert presentations, workshops, key note speaking and retreat work on many different topics for all ages integrating music from his five album releases of original music, story, prayer and humor. David is currently booking concerts and retreats, is a private music teacher, attending Marylhurst University, developing HeartSongMusic Studio and working on three new CD collections. About There Is Hope: One of the most basic yet essential elements any human being needs to be fully alive is the unshakable belief in and deepest knowledge of being loved, unconditionally. When present, he or she is free to trust, and lives passionately; and loves self and others without limits. The desire to be fully alive is a gift, forever burning softly within our soul. This release is a collection of songs written over the past twenty years. Each song came in the midst of some very painful consequences resulting from times when I "chose unwisely" yet, heard in my heart... "there is hope"... "I believe in you"... "you are loved"
