Piano Solo Music 13 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: New Age, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: Dixon was inspired to return to playing piano solo music in 1987 while in college after attending a George Winston concert in Washington, D.C. Dixon had grown up with piano lessons but had not played for several years. He returned to the piano in college and began composing music. After composing enough material to produce his first album in 1992, he released his follow up album in 1994. Dixon set out to record his own unique piano style which illustrate life experiences such as leaving home and graduating from college. Doll's compositions range from quiet and slower moving pieces to songs that combine popular music and jazz. Dixon privately recorded his first piano solo album in 1992, titled IN THE DARK after meeting George Winston's producer. Howard Johnston co-produced both IN THE DARK and Doll's second release, INDEPENDENCE WAY. Dixon released his 3rd album TEN YEARS in the Fall of 2004. The album was recorded in San Francisco and is dedicated to the memory of a close friend who passed away from cancer. Dixon's additional piano influences include Bruce Hornsby, Elton John, Billy Joel, Liz Story, Phil Aaberg and David Lanz. Dixon grew up listening to Rock and Roll and first heard the piano solo music played by George Winston on the radio in the Detroit Area. There was a station there 100.3 that did a show every evening that had the theme of relaxation and introspection. Dixon's music has appeared on a television show and several hundred radio stations across the country. He has played at a number of live events over the years including at the Andre Agassi charity event in 1996 in Las Vegas. His records are available at Amazon.com; CDBABY, Tower.com, Ratesummusic and at his own web site dixondolljr.com.
