This group may be small, but they are jam packed full of energy and dedication. Both raised by single mothers from low-income families; both found love and escape in music; and both were determined to break away from the ordinary everyday lifestyles. John and Micah were acquaintances growing up and came together as a group in the middle of 1999. "Epidimic" was then formed. After a few years of saving and working hard, they released their first CD (self-titled) in January 2004. In October 2004, they released an EP titled "Wicked Realms." All of their beats and lyrics are original and are full of controversial issues. Droopy Jeezus, 24, was born in Warsaw, Indiana and is the oldest of three boys. He has dreamt about doing music since he was very young and is determined to make a career out of it. Droopy Jeezus is a loner who receives enjoyment out of making beats. He has stayed around the Kosciusko and Whitley counties for most of his life. Crac Kajak, 22, was born in Austin, Texas and when he was a toddler, he and his mother moved to Pierceton, Indiana. He is the oldest sibling and has two younger sisters. It was in his early teen years when Crac Kajak found that music struck his interest. He is a bit of a drifter, making his home wherever his feet land.
