Frank Zappa on Mescaline with a slice of Cake. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, ROCK: Psychedelic Details:

Horus8, is an actor and poet (writer) residing in Hollywood, Ca. A 28 year old avante garde artist influenced primarily by Jim Morrison and Jeff Buckley, but I hear more of Lou Reed and an electricified Leonard Cohen with a falseto. He began as a spoken word artist, but realized quick music was what he was missing from his poems and Literary pop references (he draws upon to improv) Like Henry Rollins, or King Missile. That said, you will find that not only does horus8 discover his own voice and style sometime between the age of 23 and now, but he's loyal to the form, full of razor sharp wit, and epitomizes the underground movement in America. A Jack Keruoac dead ringer. His on the road ranting is fresh, and instantly made me question how I viewed everything around me. His stories are universally appealing and Myth oriented in shamanism and bullmake (blatant lies). It's unquestionably apparent that being a front man crooner, whether on piano, guitar, or just standing there and riffing is his calling in life. If there ever was a Dr. Jeckyl, and Mr. Hyde of music... There is one now, and it's horus8. By David Weisman.
