GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: Gifted and talented musician Lonnie Devon Dawkins, founder of 2Sharp, LLC, has been playing piano and arranging music since a very young age. His parents, Evangelist L. D. Dawkins Jr. and Elder Vordia L. Dawkins recognized and cultivated Lonnie's talents when he was youngster and as he grew into adulthood. As a teenager, he began to direct area church choirs and became a minister of music at New Mount Zion Baptist Church, Gaffney South Carolina and later the Washington Missionary Baptist Church, Waco, North Carolina. During his career, he has traveled extensively and shared the bill with other well known singers around North and South Carolina. He was the director of the Seeds of Abraham, a community choir which he organized. Even though there were times when his music had to be put on hold do to other job constraints, Lonnie held on to the visions which God had instilled in his life. Finally after relocating to Atlanta, Georgia in September 1994, God's plan for his life began to take unravel and reveal itself even more. Upon leaving a very lucrative company where he obtained a corporate position after eight years, Lonnie knew he would not have peace until he established himself in the center of God's will and purpose for his life. After much prayer and faith, Lonnie began 2SharpMusic in Atlanta where he resides today. The company is geared toward artists development, production and distribution under the watchful eyes of Lonnie Devon Dawkins. Today he is the minister of music at the Indian Hill Baptist Church, Gaffney, South Carolina. Weekly he make a 450 mile round trip to do what God has called him to do. That is to minister God's word and mission with anointing and through his music.
