Details: Mina Mauldin's debut album "Superpsychoticqueen" introduces the world to Mina's unique and edgy pop/rock style. Produced by local musician, Lonnie Trevino, Jr., this collection contains cutting-edge, radio-friendly material. "Mina's voice is unique enough to not be able to place a resemblance on it but familiar enough to draw you in." explains Lonnie. Songs styles range from "Let's Not Talk of Love" (alternative rock like Foo Fighters) to "Superstar" (LA dream pop like Avril Lavigne); not to mention "Genuine Jack" (roots rock like Sheryl Crow). Quickly gaining momentum as a favorite among the female fans is "Nobody's Girl" (baring stylistic resemblances to the Pretenders E.L.O.).

Singer/Songwriter Mina Mauldin is a Texas native who moved to Austin two years ago by way of LA, after working with and co-writing two songs with Kevin Hunter (Sheryl Crow, Simple Minds). Subsequently Mina has co-written a CD's worth of material with Lonnie Trevino Jr., recorded it at Carl Thiel Studios and Mark Addison's Aerie studio, and assembled a powerhouse group capable of bringing those incredible recorded sounds to life. Truly original, Mina Mauldin is what's next in Austin Texas and the world! Press "Mina shines her glorious light all over this CD. It's Beauty. It's Love. It's Perfection." Ali, Austinlive "Nice work! You've got a fan here!" Clint McBay, Director of A&R TAXI
