

Mp3 Nancy Loeffler-Caro - Expressions

DOWNLOAD HERE

Pianist, composer, vocal, where classical meets popular music. 8 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: Nancy Loeffler-Caro was born on October 11, 1961. At the age of 7 she began to study piano. She is fifth to study piano in a direct line of Franz Liszt. She has exclusively studied with her father, Robert Loeffler. Her mother Edna (Muirhead) Loeffler was a vocalist. Her course of study has been a Russian-American course, which included the completion of the John Thompson program. Nancy received a Teaching and Performing certificate which includes 50 hours of concertizing and one year as an apprentice teacher. In July of 1999 Nancy completed her study to be a certified concert pianist, which consisted of 150 concert repertoire for piano that have been publicly performed. More recently on December 10, 2004 she received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Music. Other music studies include Grade 8 saxophone, guitar, 4 years of vocal training, 6 years as a piano accompanist. Two years singing in the chorus with the Windsor Light Opera. She is presently studying violin with Michele Dumoulin of the Windsor Symphony Orchestra. A few of Mrs. Caro's highlights during her career have been the Music Award in both grade school and high school. Receiving a standing ovation in her first concert performance at age 11 playing Liszt's Hungarian Rhapsody#2. Being a member of the Massey Stage Band which won the Canadian Stage Band Festival in 1981 as regional champs, Nancy played alto saxophone. On April 22, 2004 Nancy won first place in the Kiwanis Music Festival in the String Ensembles category playing violin with her father Robert Loeffler as her accompanist on piano. This is Nancy's first CD. The compositions on this CD were written in various stages of her life from a youth to the present. "Excerpts in Melody" she composed at age 11. "Colorado My Love" she composed at age 12, and "When I Think of California" she composed at age 13. The other compositions she composed as an adult. "Romanze in E Major" was written for her husband Leo and "Jake's Lullaby" was written for their parrot. Nancy would like to take this opportunity to thank you personally for choosing her CD and she hopes you enjoy listening to it.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: