Details: Wells Hollow is a new country song-writing team from the Finger Lakes wine country of western New York State. The project began in the winter of 2008 when Wayne and Bee met while singing karaoke at Don's Beer and Pretzel Emporium. The duo's efforts have now culminated in their May 2009 release of their first album, "A Walk In The Hollow." The new album is a collection of 12 songs co-written by the pair, and visits many of the traditional country motifs, from the powerful, inspirational ballad "High Country" to the wise-ass, backwoods brawling beat of "Countrified", to the spacy, dream-like cowboy Western feel of the title track. All Wells Hollow songs have proven to have their own unique style and substance...therefore, regardless of the demographics of the listener, the music speaks to people on their own level. Instrumentalist Bee Thomas had the first inspiration for the creation of Wells Hollow (the name of the road he lives on!!!), when he realized that singer Wayne Andrews would be the perfect vehicle for his song-writing... the front man all the ladies seem to love. Thomas possessed a Bachelor of Music from the Crane School of Music, and had written over 200 songs with various degrees of success, but never had "the look." And as life turns out, Andrews also had many good ideas for hooks that could be turned into country songs if only he had an experienced arranger... Chemistry. And thus, Wells Hollow was born. One of the most interesting things about the song-writing is the integration of the duo's different approaches...Wayne Andrews' down-to-earth, backwater country style, and Bee Thomas' more metaphorical, progressive instrumentals and lyrics. The result is a more cerebral country pop sound that seems to crossover on a variety of different genres...and making it marketable to a wider audience. While they have begun as a song-writing duo, Wells Hollow is now in the process of expanding their universe...looking for management, promoters, musicians, and any and all comers who wish to get on the ride. The market will soon decide whether Wells Hollow is a band looking for pickers, a song-writing team looking for artists, or just a honky-tonk local bar-band looking to get lucky. It's all about the SONGS. Please feel free to contact us with any suggestions, propositions, constructive criticism, or just friendly banter that you may have. We can be reached at wellshollow@hotmail.com. We look forward to meeting as many people as we can on this short journey through life, this "Walk in the Hollow", and so may our paths cross on down the road a piece...
