What Would You Say If One Of The Top IM Salespage Graphic Designers Hooks You Up With 4 Great Designs That You Can Easily Edit? In simple terms imagery sells, plain and simple. Imagine been able to buy exactly the same product from 2 different places, both exactly the same price. The only difference is the graphics on the sales page, one is far superior than the other, who would you buy from? I personally would buy from the guy with the great graphics. Why, because someone who puts in the time to make his site visually pleasing is more likely to put the same effort to other areas of his business, for example customer service! How would you like to be 'almost given' 4 different mini site templates with superior graphics? Would you like to be the person that grabs the customers from under your competitors noses? 4 generic Headers, including the PSD, so you can edit to your hearts delight 4 Headers & 4 Footers with no text, edit with any image editing program 4 mini site templates, including header, footer, subscribe box and order button (inc PSD's) Each mini site template comes with a choice of 9 different backgrounds
