The guitar player likes Collective Soul, the drummer likes Rush, and the singer got a vocal degree singing a bunch of opera stuff. Throw it all in a bucket, mix it up, and something truly original comes out. 10 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel, POP: with Electronic Production Details: "The vocals on this CD are absolutely amazing and with the different styles everything works wonders." Jolene Craig The Parkersburg News We have received some radio airplay of 'The Blood' and won Battle of the Bands (Christian genre) in January 2005 with 'Praise Him'. 'God of Me' and 'Unconditional Love' are probably the two biggest listener favorites. Donna was honored with Who's Who Among American College students while achieving her Bachelor's degree in vocal performance. She currently leads Praise and Worship, teaches voice, works with youth and is working on her Masters degree. Kevin has played guitar for several years and is involved with Praise and Worship, in addition to 1point25. He is also the resident technical expert because of his terrific computer skills. He digs Collective Soul and Steve Vai. Wayne is an ex-drug addict; in 1999, God delivered him from years of substance abuse-no counseling, no treatments, no Betty Ford Clinics. He is currently involved with youth groups and is a full-time student seeking a Bachelors degree. He likes Rush (it's a drummer thing) and recently, got into Pillar (a kick A## Jesus rock band).
