Shortly after the the tragic death of Dale Earnhardt he wrote and recorded a tribute song for Relentless Nashville that earned him heavy praise from the likes of NASCAR veterens such as Darryl Waltrip and many others. All true Dale Earnhart fans will find it a must have once they've heard it. Bernie's "I'm Not Suppose To Be Here" will leave you speechless if not teary-eyed. If for no other reason get this Multi- Award winning singer/songwriters CD just so you can have a copy of "Slow Train Home." An amazing tribute to soldiers and anyone fighting battles of any kind. Which he recorded with his co-writer and good friend Dave Gibson of Gibson/ Miller fame. Bernie reflects, " The late great George McCorkle " Fire On The Mountain" once told me if you're in this thing for the money you'll surely wind up broke and unhappy." George was right I've had so many great moments in this life through music that money could never buy." Look for Bernie's vocal on the new "Diamond Gusset Jeans" ad running on most syndicated radio shows such as, "The G.Gordon Liddy Show" and,"The Phil Valentine Show."
