WORLD: Reggae, WORLD: Island Details: In late 1996, I had a dream. I was sitting on a hill with a guitar, my mother by my side. I told her I was going to play some music. She laughed and asked if I could play. The sun was shining nice. Not too hot, just nice. Then I started to play music, with many people down to the bottom of the hill. They were laughing and feeling nice. After the music, my mother laughed again, she said, "Casper, I didn't know you could play music." I answered, "Yes, Mommy, didn't I tell you I could play." I knew the dream was a prophecy. His Imperial Majesty, was calling me to be his servant. In this I would have no other choice. I must always do His works. That was when I first picked up a guitar. The inspiration of H.I.M. came to me through a series of dreams which resulted in the recording of The Question of Peace album in 1998. Since then Jah has continued to fill me with song, so I will stay in the House of David; I will play His guitar. Come sing with me as I pay tribute to the power of the creator, His Imperial Majesty, Emperor Haile Selassie I. Jah Rastafari!
