Country Rock, Rhythm and Blues, Reggae and Jazz 16 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Blues, BLUES: Rhythm Blues Details: On "Appalachian Trail" Chantilly Lace pays tribute to the artistic legacy of an ancestor, George David Frye, who died in France from the flu pandemic of 1918 at age 28. Featuring the country rock compositions of Ralph Frye Vittek, the album also includes the band's usual array of Rhythm and Blues, Rock, Reggae and Jazz with tinged tales of love and redemption. From a family reunion in western Pennsylvania, the Frye/Sanders cousins chant "We're not done yet." How true. All songs written by James Vittek and/or Ralph Vittek. Licensed by the California Department of Real Estate for over 25 years, Ralph Vittek enjoys helping buyers and sellers obtain their real estate goals in San Diego County. Email at chantillymusic@peoplepc.com. Ralph is also an active caregiver, helping the elderly maintain their quality of life. Ralph and his wife, Susan reside in Carlsbad, CA. Ralph's brother James, lives in Chagrin Falls, OH. James is the founder of their band, Chantilly Lace. Recognized internationally for their songwriting abilities, Chantilly Lace offers an array of music appreciated in many countries and by many cultures. Enjoy the music.
