Modern liquid melancholy. Dummy music with jazzy grooves, electronic structures, fragile melody fragments and misty atmosphere intended to listen home alone 6 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Lounge, ELECTRONIC: Chill out Details: The band was founded sometimes in 1996 by 3 schoolmates Richard, Igor and Peter there in a small town just 'nowhere'. They were always interested in an electronic music, they were influenced from bands like Dead Can Dance, Laika, Underworld but also Joy Division or Can. As soon as they built a small studio at a Peter's flat they started to create (and record) misty, melancholic tunes using samplers, keyboards and computer, often acclaimed as "indielectronica for lonely souls". In 2000 Richard met young and very talented singer Sylvia and asked her to sing with Ettella Diamant. The cooperation of them led to change of Ettella's sound. They started to use more instruments and invited Juro (also known as DJ Professor Z) to play a guitar and DJ Agent for scratching. First official eponymous EP was released December 2004 on Deadred Records after it was several times re-recorded. The EP got very positive feedback from musical press although the band in this set never played live performances and became known as "a secret band" People who are interested in MONO Goldfrapp should consider this download.
