Details: Frederick Winston Stamps The big cities are places with churches, temples, meeting halls and auditoriums.. All these places of worship are being awakened with the glory and love of music.

Particularly with Gospel music, the music that was sung in the South by people of color, warring against the pain, the suffering and oppression of slavery. Triumphant are the words: "Now unto him that is able to keep us from falling. And to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, the only Wise God, our Savior, Be The Glory and Majesty, Dominion and Power - both now and ever." - Jude: 24-25 Triumphant is the gift of song given to Frederick Winston Stamps. Born in Kansas City, Kansas, his family moved to Los Angeles when he was a child. He later attended high school and college. Upon graduating from Eubanks Conservatory of Music, he explored his gift and performed with various groups, singing pop and soul music, and the defiant Exhilaration of Gospel Music. But these were the dues he paid for the admission to the great feast of music. And at the fest, he chose his own style of music to sing of praise and goodness. - Chris Grant
