"...a country agonist with Daniel Lanois-like production and a Dylanesque literary imagination..." Stephen Fruitman/Sonomu 10 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Mood Music, ELECTRONIC: Down Tempo Details: A former member of the seminal 1980's garage band THE MORLOCKS (Epitaph, Voxx, Midnight), Jeffrey Luck Lucas is also a classically trained cellist who has appeared on records by Neurosis, Pat Ryan, High Water Rising, Steve Von Till, Chuck Prophet, Paula Frazer, Barbara Manning, and others. After getting himself an education--from divorce, whiskey, and the laws of physics--he sat down to write the songs that were burning in-- and breaking-- his heart. Eventually this catharsis drove him down yet darker highways, through midnight heavens and hells, only to create the starry backdrop for his beautiful and dark, divinely ominous music. Jeffrey Luck Lucas creates music that is alternatively slow, dark, cinematic, tragic, intensely lustful and lovely as well as heartbreaking. These are songs that evoke visions of desert emptiness, loneliness, bitter love, and sweet-- but often deadly-- passion: these are hallucinatory western spirits in the headlights... there and then gone.
