Details: John Moore is an acoustic/electric singer song writer, currently living in Toronto, Canada. He has been performing live for the past 10 years in Texas, Hawaii, and Toronto and has shared the stage with artists such as: Jack Johnson, Donavon Frankenreiter, The Tower of Power, Tom Conway, Pat Simmons, Bob Harrison, Darrell Mansfield, Kanekoa, and Vince Esquire. Having recently moved to Toronto from Maui, John recorded a new full length album with the great producer Stephen Traub. The new album "Neutral to Drive" features notable performances from artists such as, Kevin Breit, Matt Brubeck, Ray Montford, and Garry Breit to name a few. This new album "Neutral to Drive" will be available in July 08'. The record is a collection of songs both new and old that I have written over the past 10 years, it talks a lot about my life and things I have noticed in the World. I have always loved music above and beyond anything else, and people such as Paul Simon, Kurt Cobain, Bob Marley, Dave Matthews, Ben Harper, James Taylor, The Beatles, and Willie Nelson have really inspired me to create music that can be shared by all. Thanks for all the support.
