Details: Marthia Sides has one of the most impressive voices, looks, and musical pedigrees on Music Row. First of all, Radios response to her Nashville debut CD Born Again in the Country and the single Picture Perfect Girl has shown that Marthia has a unique sound that Country listeners get on the very first spin. That song has a Pop/Country feel which is made for Country Radio. The follow-up single, City Country City, may be even more impressive. Unlike Perfect, Marthia wrote this one, a funky and highly autobiographical story song about her countless geographical and musical influences. Among those musical heroes is Patsy Cline, who like Marthia is a Virginian whose music spanned Country and Pop idioms effortlessly. She grew up around Country her whole life. What truly separates Marthia from her Row competition is not just her music and her style which are impressive indeed but its her show-biz background. Shes one of the few Country singers whos lived the life of an Off-Broadway performer in New York, not in downtown Nashville and endured the Broadway auditions with 800 other top talents. Marthia has done tons of TV and film work, and is a top-notch stylist with many celebrity clients. Internet Radio and MySpace have become launching pads for Marthias music, as Picture Perfect Girl and City Country City have racked up huge numbers of plays on the Web. Marthia is currently in the studio finishing her second CD, to be released early in 2008. She is a polished live performer who loves playing concerts. Marthia mixes in classic Country doing several Patsy and Crystal songs, for instance with newer and original material.
