The True Hood Stories album is based on the life of Page1. A native of Detroit, MI who grew up on 7 mile rd. Tales of murder, sex money, and drugs over gangster tracks keeps you riding and grooving. 17 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hardcore Rap, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: Page1, (CEO of Hittin Lick Records and the founder of Detromental, a Detroit based Rap, R B, and Hip Hop group), is about to take the Music scene on a biographical journey. True Hood Stories is a collection of real-life stories with a truly urban sound. Page1 has been on the music path since he was twelve years old and his style has evolved from the streets to the studio seemingly without effort. Page1 was destined to perform and his love for the game is displayed in everything he does. "Fallen" has a down and out background but leaves you with a feeling that everything is going to work out just fine. A little prayer and The 23rd Psalm have a way of keeping you on the ups every time. Page1's voice hints at despair, but you know this man is a survivor when you hear what he has to say. "I'm a Boss" shows the versatility of Page1. A hype beat for the club! Page 1 has the whole crowd moving with this track. The young hustlers want to be like him, stacking money and running the scene like a pro. Imagine a custom whip with chrome shining and rims rolling- pulling up in front of the club on a hot summer night. Jumping out and mobin in with your crew.
