Taco Da Mofo's have unwittingly created a style all to their own. With influences from reggae, rap, and rock and an energetic live show, earned Taco Da Mofo's the title of "Your Good Time Band". 20 MP3 Songs WORLD: Reggae, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: The party all started in Late 1998. Taco picked up a guitar without any prior knowledge of how to play. His style occurred naturally and began writing his infamous "funny" songs. He began showing up at parties or anywhere where there was a crowd and would play til the early morning. A buzz was created in Jackson, Tennessee and Taco began to play acoustic shows at various venues like restaurants, bars, and such. People began to encourage Taco to make a cd and in March 1999, the now classic Taco acoustic album "Last Stand at 684", was recorded. The process was simple, run a mic through a karaoke machine and record. With the success of the acoustic album Taco decided to form a band. With Taco at the helm, the band unwittingly created a style unlike anything you've heard. With influences from rock, rap, and reggae and an energetic live show, earned Taco Da Mofo's the title of "Your Good Time Band". From this point to the present, the band may have changed members, but has never been tighter. Taco humbly began making a crowd laugh and have a good time. Now a full out urban assault on the music biz has begun; everyone will soon know the full extent of Da Mofo's. Taco Da Mofo's have played shows all across Tennessee since 2000. Now the band is more mature and understands what it takes to make good music and be successful in life. The band now consists of Robert Moore aka Taco, Chris" Keela" Case, Shane Boggy, Charlie Eaves, and Shannon Harris. Taco Da Mofo's entered the studio late 2005 with the mission to produce their most ambitious music yet. Working with producer Skid Mills (ZZ Top, Saliva, Hole, Robert Cray, 3 Doors Down, and many others) is a dream come true. The future of the band is limitless. Currently Da Mofo's are playing shows and once more building a grassroots following. Taco Da Mofo's continue to spread the good vibes one fan at a time...
